概要	This is a speaking and peer listening class that covers the vocabulary, language patterns and collocations that students need to communicate actively within a wide range of relevant and interesting topic areas. All new language is recycled throughout the course. Each unit will be split into three class periods. The whole aim of this course is to maximize student talking time. You will be expected to speak as much as possible in a fun, active learning environment. The material and resources will help you to become better speakers, and you will help each other. There will be a speaking project at the end of every unit.
到達目標	Students will improve their speaking skills through a supporting framework for learning that provides learners with the language and opportunity to express themselves accurately and with confidence. There will be a high degree of peer cooperation, learning, and teaching, ensuring students become active speakers.
